What drives Prime Video's share of US TV time

Streaming nearly doubled its share of US TV time in five years, from 26% to 49%

Source: Nielsen The Gauge, May 2021–Jul 2026. Months with methodology breaks excluded; gaps between points are unreported months.

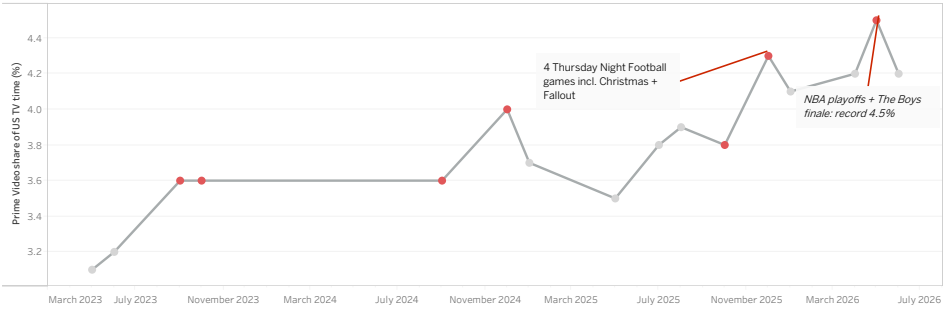
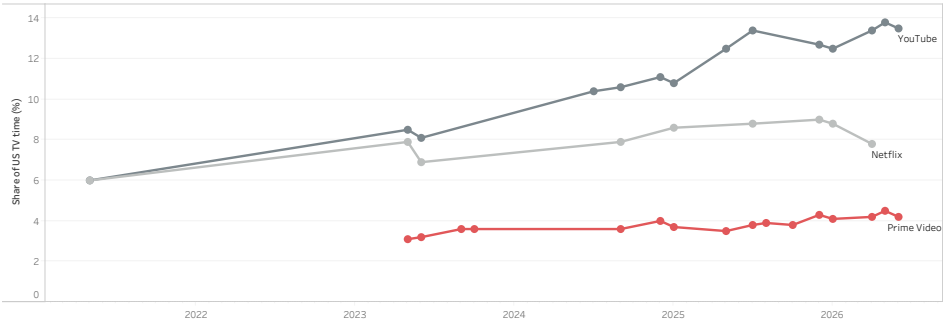
Every new Prime Video high since September 2023 came in a live sports month



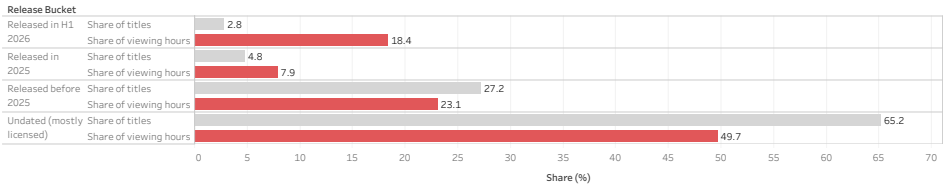
Source: Nielsen The Gauge. Dots are reported months; lines connect across unreported months. Sports months = TNF season (Sept–Dec) plus confirmed events. On TNF nights in Oct 2025, Prime Video reached 6.4% of TV vs. a 3.8% monthly average.

YouTube leads on scale; Prime Video is growing in event-driven steps



Source: Nielsen The Gauge. Dots are reported months; lines connect across unreported months.

New releases are 3% of Netflix's catalog but 18% of its viewing



Source: Netflix "What We Watched," Jan–Jun 2026 (97.7B hours, reconciled to Netflix's published total). Undated titles are mostly licensed. Excludes the "Other" catch-all row (0.9% of hours).